

How to form a Film Society

1. Those who are desirous of forming film society may adopt a resolution to this effect in a meeting attended by not less than seven persons who will be called the promoters.
2. The society should have Rules and Regulations (Byelaws) approved in the meeting.
3. Then apply to the District Registrar for Registration under Charitable Societies Act.
4. After registration elect office bearers and committee as stipulated in the byelaws.
5. Then apply to Federation of Film Societies of India for affiliation in prescribed form.
6. The membership strength of a society should ordinarily be not less than hundred. However the Regional Council of FFSI may at its discretion waive this requirement in specific cases.
7. When the affiliation is approved, the society should pay the affiliation fee of Rs. 500/-
8. Every society shall pay Annual Subscription of Rs. 4 per member subject to a minimum of Rs. 500/- by 30th April each year.
9. For Film Clubs formed in educational Institutions affiliation will be given on the recommendation of the head of Institution. Such a film club does not require registration under Charitable Societies Act.
